PL 101-142 (Student Right to Know and Campus Security Act) establishes the collection of data and their publication to an informed University Community about criminal incidents occurring in the institution. It is important to be aware of possible risk and to collaborate to keep them to a minimum.

High-Risk Areas and Criminal Incidents - The Universities have not identified high-risk areas since the types of incidents reported constitute misdemeanors.

Should any dangerous situation arise involving risk to life or property, please dial extensions 8403 or 8405.
