TRANSFER STUDENT POLICY

Technical Undergraduate Programs

Transfer students are considered for admission, if they have followed a course of study in an accredited university and have completed no fewer than 12 credits in the institution from which they come from. Their grade point average (GPA) must be above the institutional minimum requirement. The students must not be under academic or disciplinary sanction in the institution from which they come from.

In order to be admitted, students wishing to transfer must meet the requirements of the program of their choice. The Admissions Committee can evaluate applications upon request.

Undergraduate Programs

Transfer students are considered for admission, if they have followed a course of study in an accredited university and have completed no fewer than 12 credits in the institution from which they come from. Their grade point average (GPA) must be above the institutional minimum requirement. The students must not be under academic or disciplinary sanction in the institution from which they come from.

In order to be admitted, students wishing to transfer must meet the requirements of the program of their choice. The Admissions Committee can evaluate applications upon request.

Master’s Programs

Students from other accredited institutions must meet the following requirements in order to transfer any courses:

1. Transfer courses must be from an accredited university.
2. Must not have been subjected to any academic or disciplinary sanctions.
3. Must meet the admission requirements of the particular program and specialty to which they are applying.
4. Must satisfactorily pass an interview with the program director or his/her representative.
5. Submit two (2) official credit transcripts with admission application. Students who are transferring from a university outside of Puerto Rico must submit a course catalog from the previous institution.
6. Description of each course must be provided by the Institution where it was taken.